CROCKETT'S

No. 1 Preservative.

THIS Varnish is especially adapted for use on light colored woods.Although VERY LIGHT in color, it is sold at a reasonably low price, and will be found a very satisfactory article when used on interior work.For Bath Rooms, Kitchens, Hospitals and all places where soap or alkali are used, it will be found especially superior to ordinary varnish. It resists the action of the elements longer than ordinary makes of varnish, and is therefore recommended for interior varnishing.

WILL BE A BUSY SESSION.

FEBRUARY TERM U. S. DISTRICT COURT OPENED YESTERDAY.Many Cases to be Disposed of at the Present session of the Court—Willie Ling, a Hartford Laundryman, on Trial—Other News in and About the Courts.At the February term of the United States district court, which came in yesterday with Judge W. K. Townsend on the bench, five true bills were returned by the grand jury, General E. S.
Greeney foreman of the jury. Lorie Mariner, cigar peddler, charged with infringement of the internal revenue laws, was discharged as he had been in jail since the time he was arrested last November. True bills were found againstWillie Ling of Hartford, charged with sending an obscene letter to Miss Alice Miller; against J. M. Seydes of Danbury, charged with sending obscene letters to Miss E. Meslin of Brooklyn, N.
Y., and against George Allen, Henry Olson and James and Mary McGuire, charged with being counterfeiters in Bridgeport.

CASES CONTINUED.

The case of George B. Martin, charged with obstructing the New Haven channel, was continued until next term.
The case against Frederick Myers, also of this city, charged with robbing the mails at the Union depot, this city, on Christmas eve, also went over until next term.The case of Thomas H. Plunkett of Hartford, charged with loaning the money of a bank to an insolvent corporation; of Paul Conrad, charged with violation of the lottery laws; of Richard Conway and W. W. Comstock, also went over until next term.James Agool of New York pleaded guilty to defrauding the custom house and was fined $400 and costs, which he paid. George Allen, Henry Oliver and James McGuire, charged with counterfeiting, pleaded not guilty and their cases were assigned for trial on Thursday.

OBSCENE LETTER CASE BEGUN.

At the afternoon session of the court the trial of Willie Ling of Hartford, charged with sending obscene letters to a Miss Miller, was begun. Miss Miller testified that she had received the letters in question, and that they were in Ling's handwriting, with which she was familiar.For the defense Mrs. Charles Ripley and Miss Spaulding, both of whom are teachers in the Christian Sunday school, testified that Ling attended their Sunday school and bore an excellent reputation and that in her opinion he was not capable of writing a letter couched in as good English as the letters in question. They also testified that they had taught Ling, who is a Chinese laundryman, all the English he knew.Mrs. Ling, the wife of the defendant, testified that her husband was a good man, and his character above reproach, so far as she had been able to learn.
She is an American, and testified that Ling was her second Chinese husband.
As a result of the union she had one child which Ling carried in his arms during the major portion of the trial.
All the evidence in the case is in, and at 5 o'clock court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, when the arguments will be made.

of the Evers Costume company of New York against Thomas H. Platt of this city will be taken up.The suit of William Forsyth against the New Haven Street Railway company for damages has been defaulted in the superior court and a hearing in damages will be held in the near future.

HERE'S JUDGE DE WITT.

One of the Ablest Lawyers in the South Advocates Paine's Celery Compound.Judge William Henry DeWitt is one of the most prominent lawyers and judges in East Tennessee. He is a leading member of the Southern Methodist church in Chattanooga. In legal business and social circles he stands high; his statements, says the Chattanooga Press, are regarded of special weight because of his venerable character, he being now 67 years old.He has held several prominent positions in a legislative and judicial capacity, having served as a member of the Southern Congress at Richmond during the war, and since that time as Judge of the Chancery Court, one of the highest offices in judicial practice next to the Supreme Court.He was admitted to the bar in 1850.
In 1853 he was elected to the State Legislature, but declined a re-election.
After his removal to East Tennessee he was appointed special chancellor by Gov. Taylor, and filled the office for two years. He has successfully practiced before the Supreme Court of the United States for years.In recent years, owing to the heavy work he has performed, he has been subject to nervousness, and his attention has been called at various times, both by friends and physicians, to the need of fortifying himself against physical collapse. His attention was calledto Paine's celery compound as a vitalizing force. He sought and obtained this valuable aid, and to his friends he recommended the use of the remedy for shattered nerves.Overhearing his conversation, a friend asked him to write down his experience for the use of others so afflicted. In response he wrote as follows:"Dear Sir—In obedience to your request, I state some of my personal knowledge of the value of Paine's celery compound as a medical remedy for certain afflictions and diseases, as follows, namely:"Judging from my own experience, it is a first-class remedy to restore the nervous system when broken down or impaired from over-work of mind or body, revivifying the energies. It strengthens the digestive powers and cures constipation; truly it is a great nerve tonic, a good alternative, a splendid diuretic. It is good for the kidneys and the blood, renews vitality and restores strength. It surpasses anything I have used as a health renewer, a strength giver, and a system regulator. It quiets weak nerves, gives better rest, increases both appetite and digestion, and brings back lost power of balmy sleep, nature's sweet restorer.Yours truly, William Henry DeWitt."There is the statement of Judge De-Witt—straight as a die—clear—conclusive. Read it again.

FIRE DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED.

Some two years ago a fire in the New York and New Haven freight yards here burned many cars and caused much loss. Lightning was then supposed to be the cause. A suit for $8,000 damages for loss by the L. Candes company in this city was assigned for yesterday, and was expected to be a test case for many other shippers of goods, but it is now ascertained that it has been settled out of court. It is stated that the basis of the suit was 50 per cent, which is on the same basis as that on which the company has settled some of the other claims arising from the same fire.

Against Dr. Buchanan.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24.—The court of appeals has affirmed the judgment of the lower court against Dr. Buchanan.
The latter's appeal from the judgment of the court of general sessions of the county of New York rendered August 14, 1893, convicting him of murder in the first degree. The defendant was indicted on the 9th of June in that year by the grand jury charged with the murder of Anna Buchanan, his wife, by administering poison to her.

Knights of the Golden Eagle.

At the next meeting of Rock Castle, No. 8, Knights of Golden Eagle, Thursday evening, February 28, at Pyralid lodge room the first or pilgrim's degree will be conferred upon six candidates.
Six knights from castles are cordially invited to be present.

An Old-Time Minstrel.

Among the names best known to the minstrel stage is that of Hughey Dougherty. This noted artist has been a big favorite with the New Haven audience, and there is not one who has ever seen him here but would be glad to see him again. They can see him all of next week at Poli's Wonderland theater.Portrait of a Lady who has cleaned house all day, without Pearline—and she's had a lively time of it. There's another day just like it coming to-morrow—and more afterwards.Now, see the difference. With Pearline, all this hard work would be easy; through in half the time; nobody disturbed by it. Pearline cleans, without the least harm, everything that water doesn't hurt. You won't have your paint streaked and rubbed off or your marble discolored or your temper ruffled or—well, Pearline banishes more of the ills attending house-cleaning than anything else known—just as good for washing clothes.Send it Back Fadlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back.

A PRETTY SIGHT.

Lady Washington Trolley Party.
One of the handsomest sights that our city has ever witnessed was the Lady Washington trolley party last evening given by the East and West Side Trolley club in honor of Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Cox of Newark, N. J. The car belonging to the New Haven Street Railway company was elegantly decorated, having lace curtains to each window, draped laces with red, white and blue rosettes, red and blue bunting was draped all over head, and on the outside of the car was the same with two large shields. Inside George and Lady Washington's pictures were hung, framed in red, white and blue, and the little hatchet, which must never be absent when the name of Washington is concerned, was placed over one of the doors.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durant, attired as George and Lady Washington, made a fine appearance and took their part well. All the ladies in the party were dressed in fancy dresses of delicate shades —all different and made expressly for the occasion. Powdered hair and jaunty crepe paper caps adorned their heads, while the gentlemen wore silk hats with bands to match the ladies' dress. The car, which was run by Superintendent Colton and Conductor Piercy (they also being attired in silk hats with red, white and blue bands), first proceeded to East Haven, then to Lake Whitney, where a fine supper was served at Blakeley's and dancing and singing were indulged in until 1 o'clock. During the evening Osborn Thompson, photographer, and one of the party, took a flash-light of all, and another picture was also taken of the interior of the car before leaving the power house. Red fire made expressly for the occasion was burned in abundance all along the route. A grab-bag was also a feature of the evening and contained a souvenir for each one.
The decorations for the car were furnished by the New Haven Decorating company of Meadow street and the car was certainly the handsomest one that has left the power house with a trolley party.The committee of arrangements were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durant, Mrs. Geo.
W. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clark. The others who took part in the festivities of the evening were George W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pond, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kehey, Mrs. G. Gro-mo, Mrs. Baker, Aleck Wallace, Captain William Johnson, ex-Fire Commissioner Charles Andrews, and F. D. Welch, N.
E. Farnham and sister of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Warner of Woodbridge, Miss Edith Bradley, O. Thompson, Miss May Johnson, Maud Hubbard, Fred Ruett and others, making thirty-five in all. The music for dancing was fine and Professor Beecher prompted.
All was a grand success and the same party will probably give another entertainment of this kind next month.

Read in Mind.

A charming program is in store for those who are fortunate enough to be present at Warner hall February 28.
The King's Daughters of the Howard avenue Congregation church have spared no pains in securing first-class talents, and the stage setting will be very effective.Mr. Gervase Green and other members of the Yale Glee club will favor the audience with singing. Mrs. Edward Lee Nettleton, who needs no introduction to a New Haven audience as an elocution-ist, will give two numbers, one of which will be "The Chariot Race," from Ben Hur."The Rainbow Dance," a very artistic dance arranged and led by Miss Frances Ross, cannot fail to please.Other music will be furnished by Miss Florence May Loomis, soloist, and two selections by the Espanola Mandolin club.The farce, "A House Party," forms a pretty little prelude to the program.

District of New Haven, ss. Probate Court,

February 25, 1895.

ESTATE OF HENRY C. MARTIN, of New

Haven, in said district, assigning debtor.

By voluntary assignment of the said debtor, having been lodged in this office for record and the probate thereof, and Edwin M.
Somers, of said New Haven, being in said assignment nominated as trustee for said estate, thereforeORDERED—That the 4th day of March, 1895, at 10 o'clock forenoon, be, and the same is, hereby assigned for a hearing on the approval of said proposed trustee, and that all persons interested therein may have notice to appear if they see cause, and be heard thereon, this court directs that this order be published three times in a newspaper having a circulation in said probate district before said time assigned for said hearing.LIVINGTON W. GLEAVELAND, Judge.
